You will want to save the last dance for Bobby Hendricks, the original lead singer for The Drifters, on Saturday, May 14, 2011, at the Bell Buckle Park Amphitheater. Known for hits such as “Up on the Roof”, “On Broadway”, “Wonderful World” and everyone’s favorite “Under the Boardwalk”, Bobby will be bringing his talents and all your favorite songs to benefit the Gilliland House of Shelbyville, Tennessee.

In 1957, Bobby and his group, The Five Crowns, were the opening act for the Drifters singing group which he idolized. The Drifters was so impressed with his tenor voice that they offered him the position of lead vocalist replacing Johnny Moore. Bobby toured with the biggest stars of 1957 including Paul Anka, The Diamonds, Buddy Holly, The Everly Brothers, Fats Domino, The Big Bopper and many more. Bobby was inducted into the DOO WOP HALL OF FAME of America at Symphony Hall in Boston on April 13, 2001.

Bobby will be singing all your favorites at the Bell Buckle Amphitheater. The world famous Bell Buckle Café will be on site offering rib plates, barbeque, drinks, and more. Bring a blanket or a chair and enjoy the best of the oldies but goodies that always make you smile whenever you hear them. Tickets are $10 and children 10 and under are free.
